

I am against Bellsouth's request to stop regulation of broadband services. As a broadband user I selected an internet provider that was small, knowing personalized service and attention would be assured. I believe in the long term, actions that lead to monopolization of services of any kind are detrimental to small businesses overall. Please do not deregulate broadband service. As a small business owner I believe I need as many choices as possible to insure my survival in the marketplace.